

2017 CHO (Camp Health Officer) Forum: Minute markers for all topics covered

- Video 1 of 8
 - Welcome, Introductions around the room
- Video 2 of 8
 - Continue introductions
 - 10:08 – Brad discussion from Power point
 - 10:08 page 2 - Camp Stats
 - 11:02 page 3 – Accidents in 2016
- Video 3 of 8
 - Continue Page 3 – Accidents in 2016
 - 00:35 Page 4 – Natl. Camp Insurance Stats
 - 01:39 Page 5 – Legal Requirements
 - 01:55 – Consent Release forms
 - 02:21 – Page 6 - Medications
 - 04:26 – Expired or wrong medications sent by parents
 - 08:28 – Securing medications
 - 09:04 – Meds for adults versus children
 - 09:55 – Medication changes after consent release forms were submitted
- Video 4 of 8
 - Continued - Medication changes after consent release forms were submitted
 - 01:23 – Riverbend’s consent release/registration forms change every year
 - 06:01 – Number of campers versus CHO team size
 - 08:16 – Campers with an EpiPen concerns/questions
 - 10:56 – Expired medicine or wrong dose topic revisited
 - 12:55 – Church arrives to camp but med forms are not complete
- Video 5 of 8
 - Continued - Church arrives to camp but med forms are not complete
 - 00:34 – Page 7 – Bound Medical Logs
 - 02:27 – Interpretation of an unalterable bound log
 - 05:47 – suggestion on distributing meds and logging
 - 08:30 – Options on getting enough bound books in various formats to meet CHO needs
- Video 6 of 8
 - 00:30 – suggestion on prepping log data for a large camp
 - 03:22 – a note on moving to a digital logging system
 - 4:16 – Riverbend’s policy on dealing with camper injuries

- 04:26 – Page 8 – Non-Life Threatening emergency
 - 06:22 – Page 9 – Life Threatening emergency
 - 09:16 – AED availability and location
 - 11:22 – Medical equipment that Riverbend provides
- Video 7 of 8
 - 01:14 – clarification on calling 911
 - 06:06 – CHOs treating Riverbend staff
- Video 8 of 8
 - Continued – CHO treating Riverbend staff
 - 2:54 – CHOs are not required to have their medical license on site (only access to license#)
 - 3:37 – Continued CHO treating Riverbend staff
 - 5:24 – Mentioning that we are working to pull in more technology in process. Discussed having next CHO Forum in the fall.
 - 7:00 – Riverbend policy on campers with head lice
 - 9:05 – Riverbend process on bed bugs
 - 11:38 – Clarification on adult sponsors with medication or essential oils